Verse 1:

D6 A7#5 D6 B7
Aloha in Texas is a big howdy, we ain't got beaches like in Waikiki
G6 A7 D6 Db6 C6 B7 E7 A7 Ab7 A7
But we're big sky friendly and we want you to know, you can still spread a blanket at the Gulf of Mexico
D6 A7#5 D6 B7
Grab your Hawaiian shirt and ten-gallon hat, grass skirt and coconuts, cowboy boots and chaps—
G6 Abdim7 D6 Db6 C6 B7 E7 A7 D6 A#7 A7
Wear damn near anything and still get a date, aloha from the Lone Star State

Verse 2:

D6 A7#5 D6 B7
We like our honky tonks and western swing, three long necks later we like just about anything
G6 A7 D6 B7 E7 A7 Ab7 A7
Willie and Waylon, steel guitar and Dobro—but after midnight do the hula with Don Ho
D6 A7#5 D6 B7
Orchids and lilies are alright, I suppose, but we still love our San Antonio Rose
G6 Abdim7 D6 Db6 C6 B7 E7 A7 D6 D6 Db6 C6
We'll teach you to two step, hula till it's late, aloha from the Lone Star State

Bridge:

Bm F# Bm F#
Smokin' volcanoes, that's the one thing we ain't got, but our Texas campfire chili well it burns just as hot
Bm F# E7
Our barbeque and ribs they are the best you've ever tried, we'll even serve you fish—but it will have to be
A7
deep fried
